

The Young Naturalists' Club of Stanley Park

Saturday, March 6

10 am to noon

A chance for children along with their parents to enjoy two hours of nature exploration. Activities include hiking, games, wildlife observation & more!

Meets at the Stanley Park Nature House at Lost Lagoon

Special Event: In Celebration of International Women's Day

Freedom of Mobility: Women, Sports & Recreation in Stanley Park: 1880-1920

Saturday, March 6th

1:00 pm-3:00 pm

Would you be considered "a respectable" woman a century ago? Explore this question & the intriguing cultural history of Stanley Park with historical interpreter Jolene Cummings. Visit places where 19th & early 20th Century women engaged - or not - in archery, hockey & much more. Features rare historical photographs.

$10 & $5 SPES Members

**Departs & returns to the Stanley Park Dining Pavilion. Rain or shine!

Special Places: The Environmentally Sensitive Areas of Stanley Park

Saturday, March 14

1-3 pm

What makes an area in Stanley Park environmentally sensitive? Unique opportunities for A: food, B: shelter, C: water or D: living space. These areas provide habitat for hundreds of species of plants & animals, many of which are rare or endangered. Find out why they are environmentally sensitive & what we can do to help.

Walk leaves from the Stanley Park Nature House at Lost Lagoon

$5 Children/Seniors/Members, $10 Non-members

Birds of a Feather!

Sunday, March 28

9-11 am

Join naturalist and expert bird watcher Cathy Aitchison for a two-hour walk exploring Stanley Park's varied and beautiful bird life.

Walk leaves from the Stanley Park Nature House at Lost Lagoon.

Pay what you can

